For Mr. Sydney P. Noe.

Gentlemen:

Replying to your favor of February 8.
We find your code address "NUMISMA" NEWYORK properly registered and in good standing. Any message reaching New York bearing this address would be correctly delivered.

The business of the Central Bureau for Registered Addresses is to record abbreviated addresses and circulate them to the New York Communication Companies, cable, telegraph and wireless. The Bureau does not deal with messages or the delivery of messages. The delivery is controlled by the several Companies. Any failure in delivery must be attributed to the Companies.

We have failed to locate the message referred to in your letter. It will be advisable for you to address a letter to each of the Atlantic Cable Companies;-

Gentlemen:

The Central Bureau for Registered Addresses, organized in 1919, was established by the Communication Companies, whose names appear above, for the benefit and protection of the public interested in international communication.

The Central Bureau for Registered Addresses has as its purpose the registering of available and suitable code or abbreviated addresses, for which the annual charge is $2.50. This Bureau employs no solicitors or canvassers, and is not associated in any way with publishers or sellers of Code Address Directories.

No other organization or agency is authorized by these Communication Companies to accept or charge for registered addresses on their behalf.

Yours very truly,

CENTRAL BUREAU FOR REGISTERED ADDRESSES

Gentlemen:

We are at a loss to understand why we should have received your circular letter of October 1st, because our Society has been on your list of Registered Addresses for several years, under the name of NUMISMA. We should be very glad to have an explanation.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Gentlemen:

Referring to your letter of October 27.

There is no fee due on your registered address "NUMISMA" NEWYORK. It is in good standing until Nov. 1, 1926. Due notice will be sent to you by this Bureau when renewal subscription is required.

The object of our general letter of October 1 was to advise you against any attempts by Trade Directory solicitors to obtain subscriptions by misleading you to believe you were paying for the registration of a cable or radio address.

Yours very truly,

W. A. Shea.
